

Priority Staffing Solutions, Inc. Expands Into Bilingual Sector

Deborah Wainstein, president of Priority Staffing Solutions, Inc. and a Hispanic New Yorker understands the needs of a diverse New York and the employers in this market. Priority Staffing, a temporary employment agency, has expanded into the bilingual sector to better serve companies that work in the multicultural New York market. This program, which has proven invaluable in today's labor market, has helped fuel Priority Staffing Solutions' rapid growth in its first year of business. Many companies seek diverse employees and staff with language skills. Currently Priority Staffing provides employees who speak Chinese, Korean and Spanish. Priority fields include public relations/advertising, accounting/finance, banking/brokerage, cosmetics industry, information technology support, legal, medical and non-profit organizations. Areas of specialization include administrative assistants, computer graphics, data entry/clerical, legal office support, proofreaders, word processing and bilingual secretaries.